ABOUT

Stephanie is an experienced adviser with a demonstrated history of working in the commercial real estate industry. She is one of a small handful of women specializing in Industrial brokerage in the state of Connecticut and Southern New England. Skilled in property analysis, marketing, negotiation, sales, and leasing, she is a highly organized professional with a penchant for creative real estate solutions. She is actively involved in the Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM) Connecticut Chapter and working towards a CCIM designation.

Stephanie Romano is a graduate of the University of Connecticut, where she received a BS in allied health sciences with a concentration in health promotion and a minor in psychology. She has been a Connecticut entrepreneur, broker, and real estate investor for many years.

Stephanie's main interests are centered around her family and her community, so she tries to immerse herself in the local culture and give back whenever she can. She considers herself a lifelong learner and spends a lot of her free time reading. If you need to, you can get her away from a book with art, cinema, or food. An athlete by nature, she always enjoys a little friendly competition and has mastered the game of foosball.

Stephanie resides on the Connecticut shoreline with her young son, Jude and her husband, Chris.
